NALDEN

Ontwerp: Grrrr!

GONJASUFI

A technicolor meditation on dread, love and atemporal music production. "The Electro-Hendrix" / The Guardian
Fri 3 Sep - TROUW

THE GASLAMP KILLER

The Richie Jackson of electronic music, and one man hyperrhythm. "Explosive breaks, with turntablism and Satanism going hand in hand." / Sonar Festival
Fri 3 Sep - TROUW

RAS G

El-Aylien and founder of the Afrikan Space Programme, whose music resembles an erased Sun Ra recording. "This is the music that people will be playing in the ghettos of Mars in the year 3014." / Poo-Bah Records. Sat 4 Sep - BIMHUIS

DARKSTAR

Emotive bass music - a characteristic of all members of Kode9's Hyperdub - that is as patient in its structure as it is imaginative in its texture. "The sense you get is that the human, physical world has revolved ever so slightly out of reach. It's heartbreakingly beautiful." / The Guardian
Sat 4 Sep - BIMHUIS

KNALPOT

Improvising casiorock duo that resembles the electronic textures of Fennesz and the rhythmic patterns of Dimlite, without booting a laptop. Sat 4 Sep - BIMHUIS

AARDVARCK

Archaeologists in the future will have to disclose the true nature of this mythical artist. For now, we think he is half man, half pig, half Radiohead. Fri 3 Sep - TROUW

CINNAMAN

Zeitgeist-riding artist that discovers new genres faster than you can say future garage. Fri 3 Sep - VERDIEPING / Sat 4 Sep - BIMHUIS

JUHA

Infectious agent of rhythmculture connecting people like a Finnish multinational communications corporation. Fri 3 Sep - TROUW / Sat 4 Sep - BIMHUIS

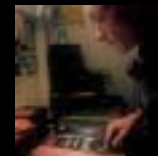

IKONIKA

Female representative of the Hyperdub record label, London's most iconic sound after the Big Ben. Fri 3 Sep - VERDIEPING

LD

Master craftsman of acetate cutting and cutting edge authority of bass music, deeply embedded in Kode9 territories. Fri 3 Sep - VERDIEPING

PLUS

Young journeyman of brain-tingling electronica, resident DJ at Sonic Warfare and Lockdown in Amsterdam. Fri 3 Sep - VERDIEPING
